

The Information for the passengers who intend to use “Takayama-Hokuriku Area Tourist Pass” and “Alpine-Takayama-Matsumoto Area Tourist Pass”

○Due to the influence of sediment flow, the operation of Takayama Line is suspended between Sakakami station and Inotani station. Also, the limited express “Hida” is cancelled between Hida-Furukawa and Toyama station for the time being, though it is operated between Nagoya station and Takayama / Hida-Furukawa station.

【For Takayama-Hokuriku Area Tourist Pass users】

Accepting the situation above, those who purchase or exchange MCO to “Takayama-Hokuriku Area Tourist Pass” to travel between Nagoya station and Hokuriku area are advised to get on the limited express “Hida” between Nagoya station and Takayama station and ride the bus between Takayama station and Kanazawa station or between Takayama station and Shin-Takaoka station, via Shirakawa-go.

【For Alpine-Takayama-Matsumoto Area Tourist Pass users】

Accepting the situation above, those who purchase or exchange MCO to “Alpine-Takayama-Matsumoto Area Tourist Pass” are advised to travel between Nagoya station and Alpine Route area via Chuo Line (including the limited express “Shinano”).

○Customers can also go through between Takayama station and Inotani station by transferring replacement bus services and local trains of Takayama Line, without any additional fare. However, please note that time and frequency are different from normal timetable.

○MCO, not being exchanged, can be shown to the travel agency where you bought it, to get refund. (Please note that, once purchased or exchanged, the pass is not subjected to any refund or extension of the validity period.)
